

Air1 is one of the few stations we have in Fort Smith with a positive message. It reaches most of the younger people in this area with the genre of music it has. There is too much music about sex, drugs, depression, and everything negative and immoral. Please let us have an alternative to what the world thinks we have to listen to. If Air1 isnt on the radio...i probably wouldnt listen to the radio.